The achieved English level is 48/100 on the EF SET score scale and B1 Intermediate according to the Common European Framework of Reference (CEFR). The EF SET score is calculated as an average of the reading and listening scores.

Listening Section

50/100 B1 Intermediate

At this level, it is easy to understand most of the English heard on television, radio or the internet. Also, comprehending job-related language and most of what people say about feelings and events can be done without too much effort.

- Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken.
- Can understand the main points of clear standard speech on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- Can understand the main point of many radio or TV programmes on current affairs or topics of personal interest when the delivery is relatively slow and clear.

Reading Section

46/100 B1 Intermediate

At this level, it is easy to understand most of what is found in English newspapers and internet reports on familiar topics, and comprehend job-related language and most personal written communications about feelings and events without much effort.

- Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc.
- Can understand texts that consist mainly of high frequency everyday or job-related language.
- Can understand the description of events, feelings and wishes in personal letters.
